Throughout human history, wars and violence have oftenbeen waged in the name of religions and in the name ofdiverging religious beliefs and belonging. Ironically, though,all religions in their teachings speak of nonviolence and havein common the promotion of peace and justice, namely therespect of human life and dignity, the institution of humanrights, the protection of the poor and vulnerable, the freeing ofthe oppressed, the active elimination of injustice? It seemstherefore, that violence and wars would be antithetical toreligions; yet they are so frequently used as their justification.Are we then speaking of different "religions"? "Institutional religions," the ones structured by humans andthat are brandished to lead violence and wars, become infact quite foreign to the essence of the religions as they wereestablished by their founders and that they intend to represent;they actually contribute to their destruction.Wanting to reflect on that point, I embarked, a few yearsago, on giving voice to local religious individuals, whom Icalled "Religious Peacemakers," and who, each by living theessential teachings of their particular faith, contributed by theiractions to peace and justice. I wanted to prove that their path,irrespective of their original religion, would be similar, and thattheir diverse faith, instead of separating them, would on thecontrary end up uniting them.

Application for Employment I refer to the recent death of the Technical Manager at your company and hereby apply for the replacement of the deceased manager. Each time I apply for a job, I get a reply that there is no vacancy but in this case I have caught you red-handed and you have no excuse because I even attended the funeral to be sure that he was truly dead and buried before applying. Attached to my letter is a copy of my CV and his death certificate. Crap CVs is a hilarious compilation of the worst job applications imaginable, including overly-honest cover letters, embarrassing typos, mortifying personal revelations, awkward interview questions, misplaced self-confidence, self-aggrandizing gibberish, blatant truth-twisting and, of course, outright lies.

Enter the " fascinating " and frightening world of modern forensic psychology as experienced by one of the most respected practitioners in the field today (Robert K. Tanenbaum, New York Times–bestselling author). At the heart of countless crimes lie the mysteries of the human mind. In this eye-opening book, Dr. Cheryl Paradis draws back the curtain on the fascinating world of forensic psychology, and revisits the most notorious and puzzling cases she has handled in her multifaceted career. Her riveting, sometimes shocking stories reveal the crucial and often surprising role forensic psychology plays in the pursuit of justice—in which the accused may truly believe their own bizarre lies, creating a world that pushes them into committing horrific, violent crimes. Join Dr. Paradis in a stark concrete cell with the indicted as she takes on the daunting task of mapping the suspect ' s madness or exposing it as fakery. Take a front-row seat in a tense, packed courtroom, where her testimony can determine an individual ' s fate—or if justice will be truly served. The criminal thought process has never been so intimately revealed—or so darkly compelling—as in this " excellent and entertaining " journey into the darkest corners of the human mind (Booklist).
